

Figure 1. FAT ID system. a) FAT ID components and how they are assembled. Lot #1 is used for output Material and Lot #2 is used for output Data. b) Example of combining data sets from two different countries to form a new data set. GRF: German Research Foundation. The person who combined the data sets to generate the new data set is designated as the data generator in the FATID of the new data set.